

PHOTO CONTEST

NOW DUE ON
OCT. 1st

Get out your cameras Grove! The City of Grove is updating their Comprehensive Plan and is reaching out to its residents help find the perfect photographs of our City that showcase the wide-range of planning-related experiences in Grove. Are you interested in your photography being featured in the final plan? If so, we invite you to share what is special to you about the community and submit your favorite images of the Grove. Photos can be representative of Grove's history, community life, open space, recreation, arts, culture, architecture, homes, or anything that embodies the spirit of what living in Grove means. Submit your photos in the comments below or email them to lbergey@ibts.org or dbottoroff@cityofgroveok.gov for a chance to be featured in the plan.

Photos must be submitted with name, location of picture, and best contact number. All submissions may be used in future City of Grove marketing and promotional materials as well as displayed on the City website.
