- Accurately and concisely communicates information about incidents, relating to animals or animal control violations to the supervisor of Animal Control or Chief of Police, in order for proper action to be taken in regard to such matters

- Writes reports describing all significant details of activities and of such information coming to his/her attention when indicated. Such reports include animal bites and various other reports required daily. Such reports serve as an accurate basis for action by other Officers and officials and make possible factual and clear testimony in Court or other proceedings at a time long after the event is reported
- Accurately makes and maintains a written log of all animals picked up and taken into custody. This log shall contain an accurate description of each animal, the length of time maintained in custody, and a final disposition on each animal. Contained within this report will be the location of the confinement
- At all times all animals in the control of the Animal Control Officer will be kept in the most humane manner possible
- After a period of no less than five (5) days following the apprehension of any animal, the Animal Control Officer shall oversee the disposal of any animal in the most humane manner possible, either by sale, adoption, humane extinction or other reasonable disposition
- Prepares information and evidence of ordinance or Law violations for presentation to the Prosecutor and to the Courts. Arranges for appearance of witnesses and outlines significant facts, evidence and testimony for the Prosecutor
- Testifies in Court. Presents accurate information from memory, personal notes, and other records, frequently long after the event on which testimony is given
- Searches for missing animals using knowledge of geography of the City or any area of the City and if found, return the lost or missing animal to its lawful owner
- Recovers and makes proper disposition of dead animals within the city limits
- Maintains Taser, motor vehicle, and other equipment in good condition and keeps uniforms and other clothing clean and neat
- Cooperates with other Law Enforcement Officers and public officials
- Promotes public understanding of Law and ordinances pertaining to animal control and cooperation in their enforcement
- Maintain good public relations, gives information and assistance and otherwise displays a spirit of service to citizens
- Shall be available for duty at all times in case of special need or emergency
- Prompt and regular attendance is required for this position.

PERIPHERAL DUTIES

- At no time shall the Animal Control Officer go outside the Grove city limits and impound any animal; except at the direction of the Chief of Police or Deputy Chief
